

COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

INDEPENDENT REDISTRICTING COMMISSION

LIVE WELL
SAN DIEGO

A large bridge at night with lights reflecting on the water. The bridge has multiple concrete pillars and is illuminated with warm lights. The water is dark blue, and the lights create a series of bright, vertical reflections. In the background, there are some boats and a city skyline under a dark blue sky.

Redistricting in San Diego County

The process of redrawing district boundaries for each of the five supervisorial districts so that each district has reasonably equal populations.

Criteria* Used to Redraw District Boundaries

1. Have reasonably equal population
2. Comply with Voting Rights Act
3. Be contiguous
4. Minimize division of cities, neighborhoods, and communities of interest
5. Be geographically compact

May NOT:

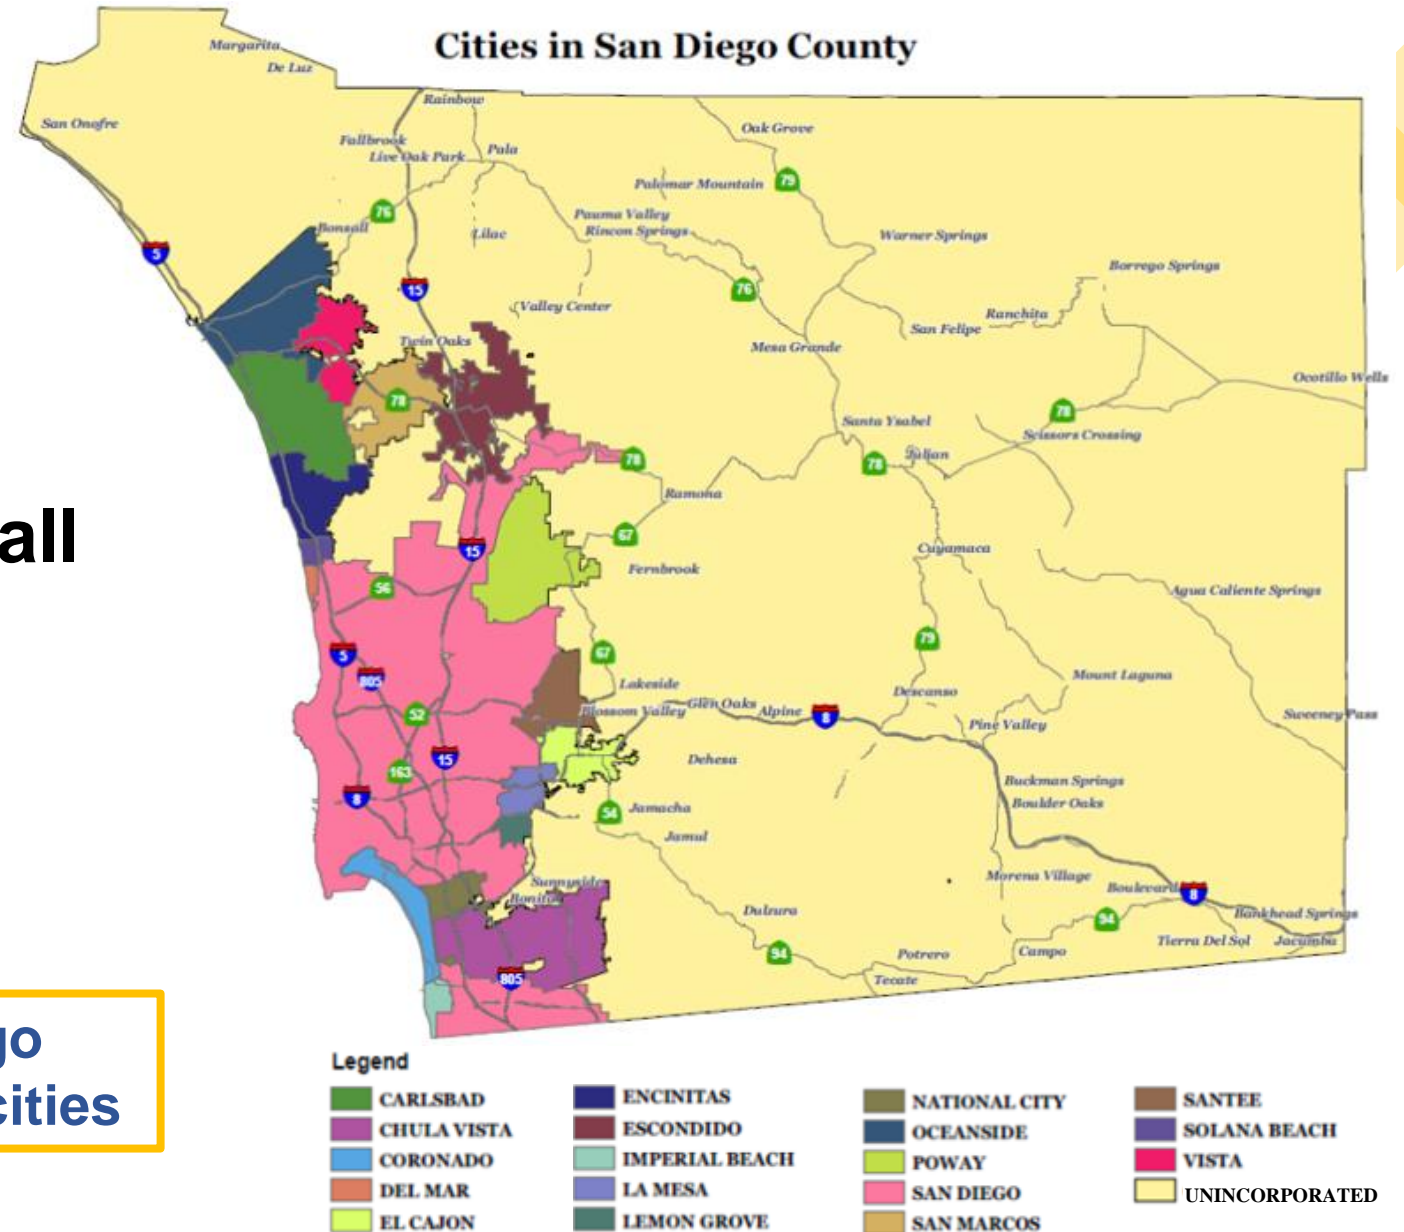

- Consider place of residence of any incumbent or political candidate
- Favor or discriminate against an incumbent, political candidate, or political party

Criteria* Specific to San Diego County

- At least three districts shall include unincorporated territory
- Two must be primarily unincorporated areas

The County of San Diego includes 18 incorporated cities

Public input to help us learn about and understand communities of interest

What are Communities of Interest (COI)?

- A contiguous population that shares common social or economic interests that should be included within a single district for purposes of effective and fair representation.
- COI do not include relationships with political parties, incumbents, or political candidates.

THE PUBLIC

Ways to Provide Public Input on COI

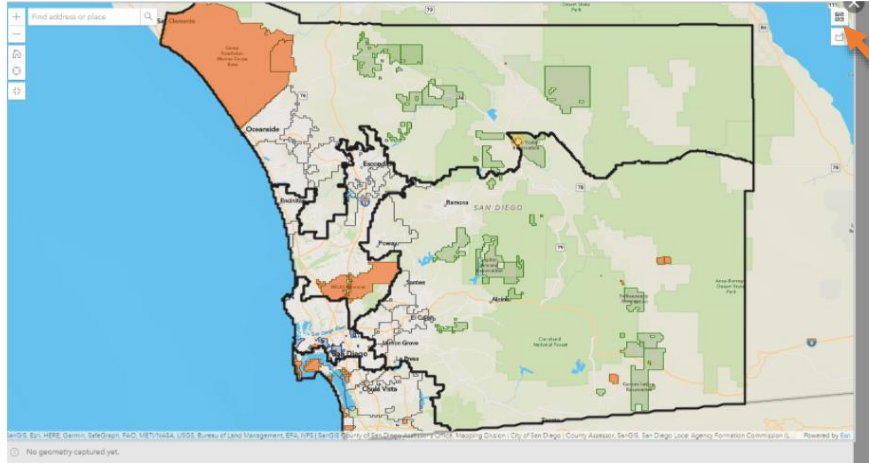

One person one vote – every person's vote counts equally!

- Provide oral testimony at pre-mapping public hearing
- Submit written testimony at any time - email, regular mail, submitting eComments via IRC website
- Draw your community - electronic tool at website or paper map
- Provide as much detail as you can about your community and the characteristics or issues that bind you together and why you should be united in a single district!
